

BUNKOED.

The King Letters to Buchanan Alleged to Be Forgeries.

A Lot of Dirty Business Has Developed in Connection With the Matter.

Gov. Hogg, of Texas, and Brown, of Kentucky, Deny That They Wrote Letters to Gov. Buchanan in King's Favor—Cleveland Letter a Forgery.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 13.—Gov. Brown, of Kentucky, and Gov. Hogg, of Texas, deny that they wrote letters to Gov. Buchanan, asking executive clemency in behalf of H. Clay King. The people of this city propose to see who did write them, and Gov. Buchanan will be asked to attempt to run the forgers to cover.

A telegram has been received from Grover Cleveland denying that he wrote a letter to the governor, but the letter to Mrs. White, signed by Grover, is in possession of the governor, and possibly it is a forgery.

A lot of dirty business has developed in connection with the whole matter. A dispatch reached here Friday morning stating that Gov. Buchanan would not tolerate any more criticism from the people of this city. The burning of him in effigy evidently displeased him, and when the communication of Buchanan was received Friday morning some of those implicated in the effigy burning said: "If they could get their hands on Buchanan they would give him a gentle coat of tar and feathers, or duck him in the Mississippi river." Warden Patten, who, when young Houghton King told him his father deserved good treatment, remarked that Dave Poston deserved it, too, and that his memory is more highly respected here than the governor.

NOT UNDERSTOOD.

The Government Eight Hour Law Perplexes the District Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The new eight hour law is creating a deal of stir in the District of Columbia just now. Not only are the commissioners perplexed as to the persons included within its scope, but heads of departments are at a loss how to proceed. The law carries as a penalty fine and imprisonment, one or both, in the discretion of the court. The fine is not to exceed $1,000 and the imprisonment not to be longer than six months. The district commissioners had District Attorney Hazleton construe the law. Now the labor unions contend that this opinion is all wrong and insist on a broader construction. Solicitor General Aldrich of the department of justice is preparing an opinion on the subject. Representative Tarsney, of Missouri, who prepared the bill, says that it applies to all government work except that which is being done on contract. He says it does not apply to the Cramps, because the ships which they are building will not be the property of the government until they are delivered to the navy department, but it does apply to all post offices, custom-houses, etc.

Smothered by Charcoal Fumes. VIENNA, Aug. 13.—A clerk in this city named Johann Singer, who had been out of employment for some time and who saw no means of supporting the woman with whom he was living and by whom he had three children, determined to kill them and then commit suicide. The means employed was burning charcoal. He started the fire in the room in which the women and children were asleep, and inhaling the fumes they soon died. Singer himself remained in the room, and from appearances he, too, died shortly after his victims.

Stevenson's Appointment. BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 13.—Gen. Stevenson announces the following appointments for campaign speech making: Indiana, September 1 to 7. He will then return to Illinois for ten days, and afterward will visit North Carolina, remaining until the end of September. He will come back to Illinois upon closing his tour in North Carolina and will devote the most of the month of October to work in his own state. During the month, however, he will make several speeches in New York state at points to be selected.

The International Money Conference. WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Senator Allison and Senator Jones, of Nevada, have formally notified the secretary of state of their acceptance of the appointment as delegates on the part of the United States to the international money conference. Similar action is expected on the part of the other three delegates. No decision has yet been reached as to the time and place of holding the conference, but it will undoubtedly be held at one of the European capitals not earlier than October 1.

Mysterious Disease Among Children. PAULDING, O., Aug. 13.—Paulding is suffering from a kind of summer complaint which seems to have become almost epidemic, and especially among the children in the lumbering community, known as Section Eight. About twenty children have died, not a child over two years old being left in Paulding. It has been especially severe, and has carried off about thirty people.

Radical Way of Reforming Burial. VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 13.—Confirmatory advice has been received of the burning of an Indian village of Queen Charlotte islands. The fire was started by some Christianized Indians from Van Couver island, who objected to the hanging of dead bodies on poles in one of the tribal manner of burial. Supt. Vowell has been requested to investigate.

Sitting Bull's Daughter Marries. RONDOUT, N. Y., Aug. 13.—A daughter of the great Indian chief, Sitting Bull, and Peter Maricle, formerly of the United States army, were married here at the residence of William Van Brumer. Maricle, it is said, served with Custer, and it is reported that his bride once saved his life when attacked by Indians.

LOOSE BUSINESS METHODS.

Somerby, of the Iron Mill, Makes Some Damaging Admissions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 13.—Supreme Justice Somerby was on the stand in the Iron Mill receivership case, Friday. The testimony elicited was strong enough to lead the plaintiffs to believe that a receiver will be appointed.

Somerby, although having supreme authority, admitted that he had never given bond until this suit was brought, and then only in the sum of $5,000, with a Detroit undertaker as security. This bond has not been approved and is not in force.

Supreme Cashier Davis is under $50,000 bond, the witness said, but one of the sureties is dead. Somerby admitted that the time for which the supreme sitting and officers had been elected (two years), had expired.

He could point out no authority for the present body to exist, except a section authorizing a special call of the sitting.

The witness did not know where any of the order's reserve funds, except $3,000 in this city, had been invested as required by the constitution. Accountant Davis had some transactions involving some $94,000, but Somerby did not know how this money was invested.

FRAUDULENT FOODS.

Analysis at Columbus, O. Shows More Than Half Adulterated.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 13.—If the people of Ohio have any doubt of the adulteration of food articles that they buy as pure and wholesome, but which are wicked frauds, they need but take a glance at the summary which is given below of the analysis of foods bought in the open market by Food and Dairy Commissioner McNeal. During May, June and July of this year there were analyzed 13 samples of oleomargarine, of which 12 were adulterated; 14 samples of butter, of which 8 were adulterated; 30 samples of vinegar, of which 21 were adulterated; 2 samples of pepper, of which one was adulterated; 12 samples of lard, of which 6 were adulterated; 18 samples of coffee, of which 16 were adulterated; 1 sample of mustard, which was adulterated. There were examined and found pure, 2 samples of maple syrup, 2 of maple sugar, 2 of cream tartar, 1 of baking soda, 1 each of cloves, ginger and allspice. During the period named twenty-four tests of milk were made, and in twelve cases the milk was found to be below standard.

THE DOUBLE PARRICIDE.

Lizzie Borden Arraigned and Pleads "Not Guilty."

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 13.—Lizzie A. Borden was arraigned in the second district court before Judge J. C. Blaisdell Friday morning, on charges of homicide arising from the killing of her father and stepmother. The courtroom was crowded to suffocation by a motley crowd of curious people in no way directly interested, and Miss Borden's friends at court were very few in number.

She entered the court room leaning on Missionary Rock's arm. She was somewhat nervous, but did not show feeling by either tears or trembling. She was then asked to plead to charges of homicide and did so, saying "Not guilty."

Miss Borden's counsel moved for a new trial at once. District Attorney Knowlton asked for a continuance until Monday, August 22, and it was granted. Mr. Morse and Bridget Sullivan were held as witnesses in the sum of $500 each. Miss Borden was asked to stand up and was committed without bail.

Father Kuhlman Refuses to Go.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Some time ago Father Kuhlman, a Catholic priest at Mitchell, Ill., was formally notified, upon order of the vatican, that his priestly robes had been taken from him. This was done on "secret information" furnished against him, but by whom the charges were preferred and what they were is not known. He refused to vacate his parish or to turn over church property and Bishop Ryan has sworn out a writ of ejectment against him. The case promises to be a sensational one before it is finished.

Post Office Clerks Suffer.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13.—The strict enforcement of the anti-lottery law and the consequent exclusion of lottery matter from the mails has reduced the revenues of the post office $103,000 per annum. Last month the receipts from orders, postal notes, etc., fell materially below the amount of the salaries in the department. The result has been that postmaster Eaton has received instructions from the postmaster general to reduce the salaries of all clerks in that division.

Confessed Incendiarist.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—During the last two years nearly $100,000 worth of property has been destroyed by incendiary fires in the two towns of Covington and Stanton, directly across the river from this city. The towns were built up by the adoption of prohibitory laws in Iowa, and bore a bad reputation, the population being composed wholly of saloon men, gamblers, etc. Bob Thompson, a bar-keeper, has made a confession, in which he acknowledged setting some of the fires.

Takes It All Back.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The Freeman's Journal and Catholic Register, which a few days ago stirred up bitter discussion in this city by virtually asserting that a proof of Archbishop Ireland's memorial was stolen from the vatican printing office at the instigation of Archbishop Corrigan, of this city, Friday, by an editorial, distinctly disavows his grace from any connection with the stolen copy.

allsbury Will Resign.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—At 1 o'clock Friday afternoon Lord Salisbury left London on a special train for Portsmouth, whence he will embark for the Isle of Wight. His destination is Osborne house, where he will tender to the queen the resignation of the conservative ministry.
